My dear Mr. Kleeberg,

Your time slips round here it is almost the end of the month again. I have much pleasure in enclosing Hundi draft for the rent, with the 1/6 deducted for the stamp from you will find it correct.
Our summer has really set in by the last three days, there blows South easter, which makes the - it seems to me almost both singing lessons.

Ethel is beginning to sing nicely, but she does not practice sufficiently to please me.
I have enclosed your letter to Cont. Amos & it should leave.

I am very sorry to hear Mrs J. Floyd has been so very poorly with influenza, I wonder how she will stand the hunting Before Mrs Jenkin left the Cars she had several fainting fits, which bothered her a week back.
It would be nice for Edith as holidays are here, if she could go now to England and meet her – It would be delightful for have a trip sometimes.

I have had Mrs. Thompson (Saul Solomon's sister-in-law) staying with us
friends for a few weeks traveling around I have been back, and disappointed to the very, Mr. & Mrs. Jacob Cohen (Rachel) and with me, they are so pleasant, and will I think be here a month or longer - but you suppose winter is here, I do love cold weather. I am delighted to hear Mary is happy in her home, it was for you, having been lived enough to come home sometimes but to be back home I the second, to your and your and hope compliments to the girls to burn it; everything so quickly. We have had such quantities of roses this year, and some very fine carnations, in fact the garden has looked lovely, even now there are a good many flowers, and this is the first year since I have been at Chatton that the plum trees have not been cleared with wasps. The bees seem are not flying so many as the hornets are dying.

Miss Mary Rutherford has returned, I hear she is now going to stay on publicly as a professional, dropping her stage name. I hope she

Mr. Scott was here from the Island for two days on business, he was so pleased with his letter from you. Eddie walks nicely, and can say a few words. She is such a sweet little thing, how pleased her poor Mother would have been with her.

George Saw thankful to say has given up all idea of going to Newfoundland for the present. You see I tell you about all the children, as I feel you are interested in them.

I have much pleasure in enclosing your draft for the rent which is due tomorrow —

Kate sends love to yourself and the girls
Ever loving Jim
