

No Natal Mail
to day — I just sent a small letter to Fan. — I shall try and have all my accounts by the time that I am with you —
Yours ever
J. H. Allen

1 1/2 p. m.

My Darling, - This
only to tell you That Mr. Ormen wishes to be introduced, I shall take him up with me by three o'clock. ~~There~~
will only stay a minute or two. Tom will be there with the cart
or waggon, tell him please, or let Sam tell him, what size,

~~I shall not write~~

I can send a letter to you and, telling you that

and I am in the office

and I am in the office

to my office

and I am in the office

and I am in the office

and I am in the office

and I am in the office

and I am in the office

~~I am in the office~~

I am afraid I ought to go to town, and tell Trimmer, that it is put off, as I have invited him for
to night. I may,
however, just put off till three o'clock though I should prefer him knowing
it earlier. However, if you wish me much
to stay, just now
I will
