

taken to publish on the languages of South Africa.
I send you this merely as a specimen, in which you may perhaps take a little interest on account of your long residence in Natal; and I reserve to myself the pleasure of presenting you with a neatly bound copy of the whole work as soon as it is finished.

Will you kindly give my best respects to Mrs. Lloyd, who - unknown as I am to her - will yet, I hope, be able to

to join you in sending your blessing to dear Femina on this occasion. I trust that you will be able to give me good accounts of your own and Mrs. Lloyd's state of health, and of that of your children, in all of whom I naturally now take great interest.

Believe me,

Reverend and Dear Sir,

very faithfully yours

W. H. J. Bleek
