Thursday - Clear
After the Gales
Have been appalling
Doctor & Mrs Pollock
Dear Mrs Pollock
Just breakfast &
Shall breakfast
Shall be glad
Dear Mrs Pollock
Thursday 1900

My dear Mrs Pollock.

How quickly the months roll by, here it is again time for me to enclose you a draft which I have much pleasure in doing - Enough I am afraid you will get a short note, as I feel tired - Mr Pellington is still ill, thought much better than he was, we take her for an hour or two in the morning into the large bedroom, and let her get a little keen - Mrs Pedcalf is still with her and he tells it is time to be with her at Eight, as she is very nervous.

Dr. & Mrs. Gorbe are still with me, he is all in fed. into Influenza, I am afraid he is a very delicate man Mrs. J. Lloyd came to see me before going to Walk Way, she looked very well, and seemed in good spirits —

The Nurse Duclaux arrived back here, I have not seen them yet, I hear they are busy having the house papered and painted And when finished will be ah — Alice Brown came to see me, she is very much like from Dolly, the same complexion and hair, she is trying to get a situation as Governess You will be sorry to hear my back here from (I Edith Shuld say) is not good, she had been back state has Every ill, for six days. She has practically unconscious in in a state of stupor, when back I heard she was not so alarmed but my mother, the afternoon of letting it upon me led would cause her to faint - I am anxiously looking for Frances post - Dr. Dart calls it Uremic Intoxication If she is not strong enough to come home also I shall send George for her - Hoping Ethel Jeffreys about the and I the week for the holidays Fanny also has been ill, with Influenza and Rheumatism, but has letter when he wrote - Dora Shaw told you all my troubles, I must ask him you all due, if Doris is quite well again - Did You enjoy your trip to the Butts?

I gave Ellen Love Frederic from Address, and if he is in Town he will call and see you - We all miss him out of the house - Edward Griffith has his room - Ellis Bennett came home yesterday, and is going to stay for a month, and help the get straight with needle work - Mr. Evans and her family are living at Ingerley now, I miss them very much - Alfred Prettejohn takes for England