

most careful in this horrid scandalous
place just now - I when I have been able to tell you the English way ^{idea} ^{prejudices} all these things you fully understand the meaning & reason indeed necessity of what may seem so cruelly unnecessary now just now - ~~the~~ I know you trust me don't as it is unnecessary even now - Please send I on by ^{the} ~~the~~ again for the law papers

& all that - say at 11 if you it to you - that we may begin to finish at that I say business and find for Louis and for a cab which down stairs & is going to be at once.
So if interrupted now I'll finish them as I can trust you -

Make Louis write her letters to Natal - before day or evening to anything for us -
You dear Haughton
'child' for go, and

before y left the day morning — if y don't take better care I shall hold ys don't come today y darly will have our treat tomorrow the cats here so y till you comes at 11 for the rest —

15 Nov 2nd BC 151 C8.29

I answer your dear Dear letter in its order —

It doesn't chill me darling at bit when with you here in dining or Mrs Prosser's room — tho I do grieve at all its discomforts & impossibility of talking as we would — more for you sake than my own because I can wait a few full years — trust till my full bleping comes near week — but I do feel how bitterly hard it is for you till then — as y can't really see me — but I put for your sake & my sisters we must be