when - how we meet today must depend so much on the New River business that I'll write all that when his paper comes Goodbye for now my own dear your wife & I remain

We send our letters such you please post them for us if you with promise to tell me what stamps they take for the sake of Louis's conscience He has written to ask that you dear -

the card with for when we meet - please
my yours

Friday 21 at 8 - a.m. BC 151 CB 40

My darling. Your letter has made me very happy - I will only answer its business part now as time is precious.
No letter from New yet, of course we are expecting it momentarily - I will send it you by the little girl as soon as it comes - I've given that to - to Parker if he gives breakfast to New at 11 after - Louis is going to New to dinner after breakfast - don't send a card for her as she prefers walk in the gardens - if you will out here - perhaps he - cause impracticable - or one cannot know that without seeing him personally - I will write on a separate piece of paper these things namely page & line in my notes the not on the deed - because if I wish do, I suppose it ^{ought} to be marked in a way - & then it is for you darling to read both over & see what you think - & then come & speak to me about it if needed that I may send to Mr K. to make the needed alterations - It is so very awkward that your name

because otherwise you I have gone to him asked for ^(read over) instruction paper & done it all straight out - but I do feel as your singularly harmful unpleasant position in all this that if I not for any sake of ease to either of us in the least add to it by this -
God come tell you we had your lunch darling - where in Loria - I do hope

very back here too for her lunch at I shall serve - Please tell her so if you are still at home -

I send you the old P/over marked copy in case

You wish to report
Goodbye for now dear
your friend

Sunday 1 P M Nov 21
a young Mr Reed has just brought this paper, so I send it at once to you darling - I wish he had returned me with it my written instruction, but suppose in the hurry forgot to do so.
because I did like you to have seen how exactly I put down every thing (to the best of my knowledge) in the way we both settled it should be - especially as in 2 or 3 particulars he has not quite carried them
