

where in town - I do hope she had some & is very back here too for her lunch w^t I shall serve - Please tell her so if you are still at home -

I send you the old P/over marked copy for same

Yours with affection Goodbye for now dear your friend

BC 151 C8.41

Friday 1 P M Nov 21 a young Mr Reed has just got this paper, so I send it at once to you darling - I wish he had returned me with it my written instructions, but suppose in the hurry forgot to do so. because I did like you to have seen how exactly I put down every thing (to the best of my knowledge) in the way we both settled it should be - especially as in 2 or 3 particulars he has not quite carried them out here - perhaps he - cause impracticable - or one cannot know that without seeing him personally.

I will note on a separate piece of paper these things numbering page & line in my notes the not on the deed - because if I will do, I suppose it ^{ought} not to be marked in any way.
& then it is for you darling to read both over & see what you think - & then come & speak to me abt it if needed that I may send to Mr K to make the needed alterations - It is so reg ardward that your name is best kept out of all this because otherwise you I have gone to him asked for ^(write over) instructions paper & done it all straight out - but I do feel as your singularly harmful unpleasant position in all this that it is not for any sake of ease to either of us in the least add to it by this -

So I come tell you we had your lunch darling -
